1949

DEDICATION

MARGARET E. MALOY

The Class of 1949 dedicates this issue of the Scottie to Mrs. Maloy. During the six years that she has been a faculty member of the Scottsdale High School she has been an inspiring counselor and friend. She has enriched the student life of our school not only by her classroom teaching but also by promoting and working toward the success of many extra-curricular activities. A popular teacher because of her enthusiasm and boundless good humor, she merits our appreciation and gratitude. We extend to her our very best wishes

Superintendent of Schools

TO THE CLASS OF 1949

My message to the Class of 1949 is expressed in this poem by John Holmes:

IN A CLASSROOM

*All the time I am talking, I am talking to you
Trying to make it true.
And I am trying to say, be sure. Endure.
It will be the way you want it.*

*I am asking you what you want to be,
Asking you what you want of me.
Telling you there is nothing in yourself
Ever to fear.
And wondering if you hear.*

TO THE CLASS OF 1949

The thought that I wish to leave with every member of the Class of 1949 is expressed in these lines:

*Each calls to each, "Good luck there, friend!"
And inwardly thinks, "Well, here's the end!"
The end? No, the beginning, son;
Just a few things end when your scroll is won.
The world needs all that you have to give
And you'll keep on learning as long as you live.*

OUR ALMA MATER

The Class of 1949 expresses appreciation to Mr. George Hazen and Miss Margaret Laughrey for the contributions which they have made to Scottdale High School this year in finding and arranging the music and supplying words for our Alma Mater. To Mr. Hazen we are deeply grateful for finding a suitable air and writing a musical arrangement for each band instrument as well as for the piano. It has been a laborious task. Miss Laughrey's share in composing the verses has been an important contribution. Every senior and every undergraduate is deeply grateful to these two teachers.

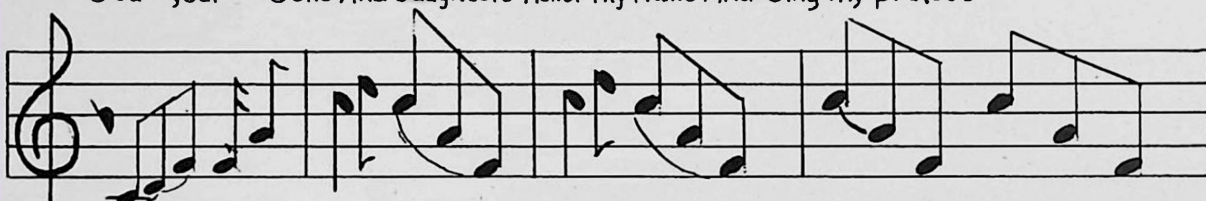

THE SCOTTIE ALMA MATER

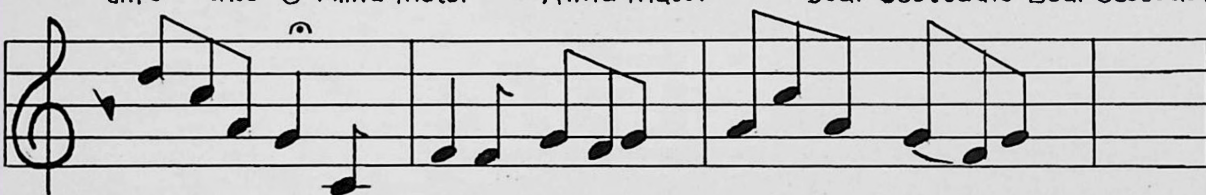

The School we Love So Fair and bright thy fame has Spread o'er Land and

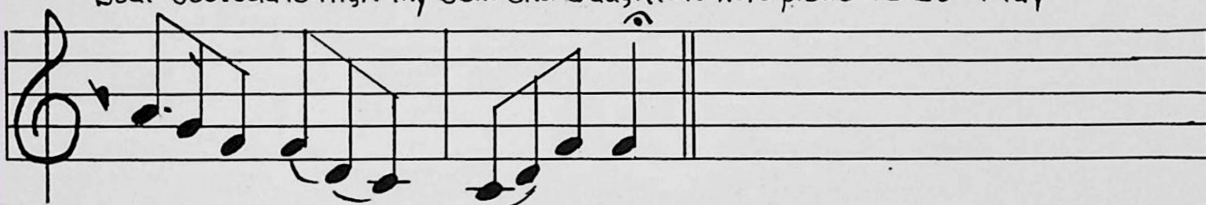

Sea your Sons And Daughters Honor thy Name And Sing thy praises

unto thee O Alma Mater Alma Mater Dear Scottdale Dear Scottdale

Dear Scottdale High thy Sons and Daughters were proud to Be May

We Ne'er forget our Loyalty

STANZA II

O high school fair,	Our friendship true
Our love we give thee,	Will never die,
Hail thy colors	As long as thy banner
Blue and White	Waves on high.

CLASSES

CLASS SONG

Dear old Class of '49,
Leaving memories behind,
How we hate to sit and pine
For our dear school.
Now that we must say adieu
May we give our best to you
And to all the teachers, too,
Our Happiness.

A million memories,
As we travel each to our fate,
We'll cherish always
And all time will never erase.
Dear old Class of '49,
Linger in this heart of mine,
We will always long for you
And our dear school.

RICHARD HARSHMAN

TUNE: "My Happiness"

CLASS MOTTO

We pass this way but once
Let us beautify the path as we go
So that the world may see
Which way we went.

THE FORTY-NINERS

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

CAST: The Class of 1949

TIME: September 4, 1945—June 3, 1949

PLACE: Chestnut Street School—Act I

High School—Acts II, III, IV

PROLOGUE

Last day! Last class! Last bell! Returning to homerooms for the last time, memories of four wonderful years overwhelm us. Remember?

Act I

1945-1946

Just another freshman class, 135 of us, reported September 4, 1945 to Chestnut Street Building. A crystal gazer could have predicted much of interest. But wait! Let the years unfold and reveal the story as it happened. This was the year physical education was introduced into the Scottsdale schools, and we reported to the Y for class. We'll never forget that unlucky day the whole gym class had detention because we didn't report back from the Y on time. One of our classmates, Babura, made the varsity eleven. Were we proud of him! Not one of us will ever forget the Christmas party that year. What a time! We talked about it for weeks afterward! All the members of the Junior High basketball team were our classmates. Cheerleaders Ruth March, Doris Curry, and Ann Miller felt like veterans at the close of the season. Mary Ellen Ryan and Malcolm Cummings had the highest I. Q.'s at the end of the year, but we all managed to get over to Senior High in September even though it was a close squeak for some of us.

Act II

1946-1947

September 3, 1946, that long-anticipated day, finally arrived and 123 of us entered Senior High. We had some difficulty in acquiring the dignity of Senior High students. One of our classmates insisted on sliding down the banisters, and many of us were experts in the manipulation of bubble gum. Coach Gross found some good material for the varsity in our class, and the boys all gave a good account of themselves—Dunlevy, our southpaw passer, Hollenbaugh, the end man, Nawrocki, the plunging fullback, the linemen, Babura and King, and Jefferys a backfield "whiz." Plenty of good material to stack up the scores in the next two years. Ruthie and Doris were still in there cheering. Babura was elected class president for the second consecutive year. Remember the Bond Drive? We just took over that Halloween parade and made it a Bond Drive publicity stunt. Those homeroom floats! And all those posters! They must have turned the trick, though, because the people voted yes on Election Day. With the help of our sophomore teachers, we finished the year successfully, and even before school was out that spring, we were looking forward to the next year when we would be upperclassmen.

Act III

1947-1948

One hundred and seven of us responded to junior roll call that September 2. We lorded it over the sophomores who had fallen heir to the homerooms and teachers of our preceding year. Our gridiron athletes were veterans of two seasons now and they came through with eight victories. We celebrated the defeat of the Bobcats and got out of school a half day. Class elections indicated we were one-track minded. Babura and Cummings were elected president and vice president again. Our magazine sales technique was excellent. As a class we topped all previous sales records. Alice Jordan and Zane King were our super-salesmen and won radios. Our classmates Jane Ulery, Mary Jayne Uber, and June Christner joined the ranks of our snappy highstepping Scottie majorettes. This year Maureen Hughes made band history for Scottsdale with her excellent performance on the French horn. Choral Club, Student Council, Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y, Junior Red Cross had a good representation from our class. The basketball season was a memorable one. The championship of Section XI was won with the help of the boys who had won the junior high championship in '45. This was the year we memorized the Gettysburg Address. We had to—or else be Juniors another year. Miss Gosnell received an unusual gift at Christmas. Certain junior boys hold the key to that mystery. In chemistry lab an original experiment in atomic research might have blown the high school to bits—but didn't. That Jones boy! Our junior class play, "Ananias Bill," will be long-remembered both by cast members and audience. Ghrist was a natural for the "old meanie" part, and when denture difficulties complicated the situation, the audience went wild. The junior-senior prom, THE SOCIAL EVENT which we had looked forward to for so long, was a perfect conclusion to the year.

Act IV

1948-1949

The curtain rose on the fourth and final act, September 7, 1948. Ninety-five "Forty-niners" were present. A pair of Kights, two Gainseys, brother and sister, two Millers, and three Kings are listed on our class roll. Our class is the smallest that has graduated from S. H. S. for a long time, but what we lacked in numbers we made up in noise. Bickley, "Bucky" King, Jones, a Clarkson, and Rollinson took care of that. Joe Wells and Ninnie Sabbers hold the class record for mischief, Hollenbaugh for tardies, and Phillips and Jefferys tie for honors in slow-motion performance. There were some new faces on the faculty this year. Mr. Moffett was teaching math, and Mr. Boyer, physics and chemistry. Yes, you guessed it. Babura and Cummings were elected for the fourth successive term. Maizie Zerilla was our class secretary and Barbara Remaley, treasurer. Our commercial students were assigned as secretaries to teachers, and were ready to take a letter, cut a stencil, or run a test on a moment's notice. Football season opened with veteran gridders Babura and Nawrocki co-captains. They had stalwart assistance from other experienced players from the Class of '49, and the season was a good one. Senior pictures created the usual financial problems and had the same shocking results. Classes were not too dull. We took Miss Laughrey's tests like veterans. Miss Loucks introduced us to "Mrs. Macbeth." We'll never forget the first time we sang the Class song. We realized then just how sorry we'd be to graduate. Christmas vacation sneaked up on us this last year. Basketball season opened with four seniors of championship fame on the varsity. Banquet and formals made the year and exciting one socially. The spring of '49 ushered in event after event. Class play, Class day, Baccalaureate, and finally Commencement. As we looked at our diplomas, some of us realized for the first time that we had come to the close of a very important period of our lives. And most of us wished we could start all over again.

EPILOGUE

We hope you like "The Forty-Niners." We have enjoyed playing our roles and are sorry to reach the conclusion of our little drama. We say "Thank you" to all who have made our school days profitable and pleasant.

THE SCOTTIES SUFFERED A DISAPPOINTING 14-13 DEFEAT FROM BLAIRSVILLE IN THE OPENING GAME OF THE SEASON ON THE HOME FIELD. ALTHOUGH OUTPLAYED THE VISITORS PULLED THE CONTEST OUT OF THE FIRE ON A BRILLIANT FINAL PERIOD TOUCHDOWN. THE SCOTTDALE ROOKIE LINE PLAYING GOOD DEFENSIVE FOOTBALL COULD NOT RECOVER SOON ENOUGH TO WIN THE EXTRA POINTS NEEDED.

THE MILLERS BROUGHT BACK FROM MARS A 13-0 VICTORY OVER A STUBBORN FIGHTING ELEVEN. THE SCOTTIE SCORING WAS DONE BY DUNLEVY ON A THREE-YARD SMASH AND BY EVANS ON A 37-YARD JAUNT. BRILLIANT LINE PLAY AND A GOOD RUNNING ATTACK PAVED THE WAY FOR THE VICTORY.

FOLLOWING THE TRIUMPH OVER MARS THE SCOTTIES TOOK ON AL CRESS'S DEADLY ELEVEN FROM CUMBERLAND TOWNSHIP AT THE HOME FIELD. THE MIKES HAD A POWERHOUSE WHICH THEIR HOSTS COULD NOT HOLD BACK. NAWROCKI SCORED THE LONE TALLY WITH THE FINAL SCORE STANDING 34-6.

IN THE THIRD HOME GAME OF THE SEASON, THE SCOTTIES GOT BACK IN THE WIN COLUMN WITH A TRIUMPH OVER THE WEST NEWTON HORNETS BY THE SCORE OF 32-0. EVANS LED THE TOUCHDOWN PARADE WITH TWO TALLIES. DUNLEVY, HOLLENBAUGH AND NAWROCKI EACH HAD ONE. "JOE THE TOE" JONES CAME THROUGH WITH TWO EXTRA POINTS.

HOSTS TO THE MT. PLEASANT BOBCATS, THE SCOTTIES OPENED AN AERIAL AND GROUND ATTACK WHICH THE VISITORS COULD NOT STOP. ALTHOUGH PLAYING ON A MUDDY FIELD, THE HARD-CHARGING SCOTTIE LINE HELD THE OFFENSIVE ATTACK OF MT. PLEASANT TO A STANDSTILL AND WALKED AWAY WITH A 26-0 VICTORY.

ON OCTOBER 15 THE RONCO MEN TRAVELED TO SOMERSET FOR AN EASY VICTORY OVER THE EAGLETS. EVANS AGAIN STARTED THE TOUCHDOWN PARADE WITH A 72-YARD PUNT RETURN. SCOTTDALE GOT TWO ADDITIONAL SCORES BEFORE HALFTIME, AND THREE AFTER, WITH EVANS, SABBERS, AND BABURA EACH TURNING IN A TOUCHDOWN AND JONES ADDING TWO POINTS WITH PLACEMENTS. FINAL TALLY WAS 38-6.

NEXT ON THE SCHEDULE FOR THE SCOTTIES WAS THE FRAY WITH GEORGES TOWNSHIP. THE MILLERS SOUNDLY WHIPPED THEIR HOSTS, AND EMERGED WITH A 14-0 VICTORY. NAWROCKI MADE THE TWO TOUCHDOWNS. JONES KICKED THE EXTRA POINTS.

HOSTS TO THE DUNBAR MULES, THE SCOTTIES EKED OUT A CLOSE BUT DECISIVE VICTORY TO THE TUNE OF 13-12. BABURA SCORED THE FIRST TALLY ON A QUARTERBACK SNEAK FROM THE ONE-YARD LINE. SABBERS SCORED THE SECOND TOUCH-DOWN AS A RESULT OF A 65-YARD SLEEPER PASS. JONES KICKED THE EXTRA POINT, WHICH PROVED TO BE THE WINNING MARGIN.

THE BLUE AND WHITE WERE VICTORIOUS IN THEIR TRADITIONAL BATTLE WITH THE BULLDOGS OF EAST HUNTINGDON AT THE SCOTTIE FIELD. IN THE SECOND QUARTER NAWROCKI PLUNGED FROM THE ONE-YARD LINE FOR THE FIRST SCORE. IN THE THIRD PERIOD, USING THE "SLEEPER PASS," NAWROCKI TOSSED A 66-YARD PASS TO SABBERS TO SCORE THE SECOND TOUCH-DOWN. FINAL TALLY WAS 13-6.

Coach Ronco's Scottsdale Millers played a good brand of baseball, ending up in third place of their division of the W. P. I. A. L. Baseball League. All games lost were by one-run margins and the team's position in the League was no indication of their playing ability. With six lettermen returning to the squad, the Scotties can look forward to another successful season.

Once a week Choral Club's sixty members under the direction of Mrs. Martz made the halls of Junior High resound with melody. Practice for the Christmas Cantata was begun early, and on December 20, at the Methodist Church, "The Prince of Peace" was presented by this group assisted by the Junior High Chorus.

The club enjoyed a very active year. A guest choral group was invited to sing for the Scottie choristers. A spring concert was presented to the Monday Music Club. The Ways and Means Committee planned money-making activities to keep the treasury well-filled. At the close of the year the nineteen senior members were honor guests at a dinner and were presented with Choral Club pins.

The officers for the year were: president, Dorcas Dove; vice-president, Ann Miller; secretary, Grace Quinn; and treasurer, Richard Harshman.

ORCHESTRA

Seated: M. E. Ruth, J. Fleming, D. A. Fox, C. Johnson, B. Phillips, A. Miller, L. Hazen, J. Christner, J. Gaut, G. Beck, E. Guest, K. Hyatt, M. Hughes, D. Graft, L. Repp, L. Gismondi, B. Nicklow. Standing: D. Ackers, R. Love, C. Hudson, P. Byers, T. Hough.

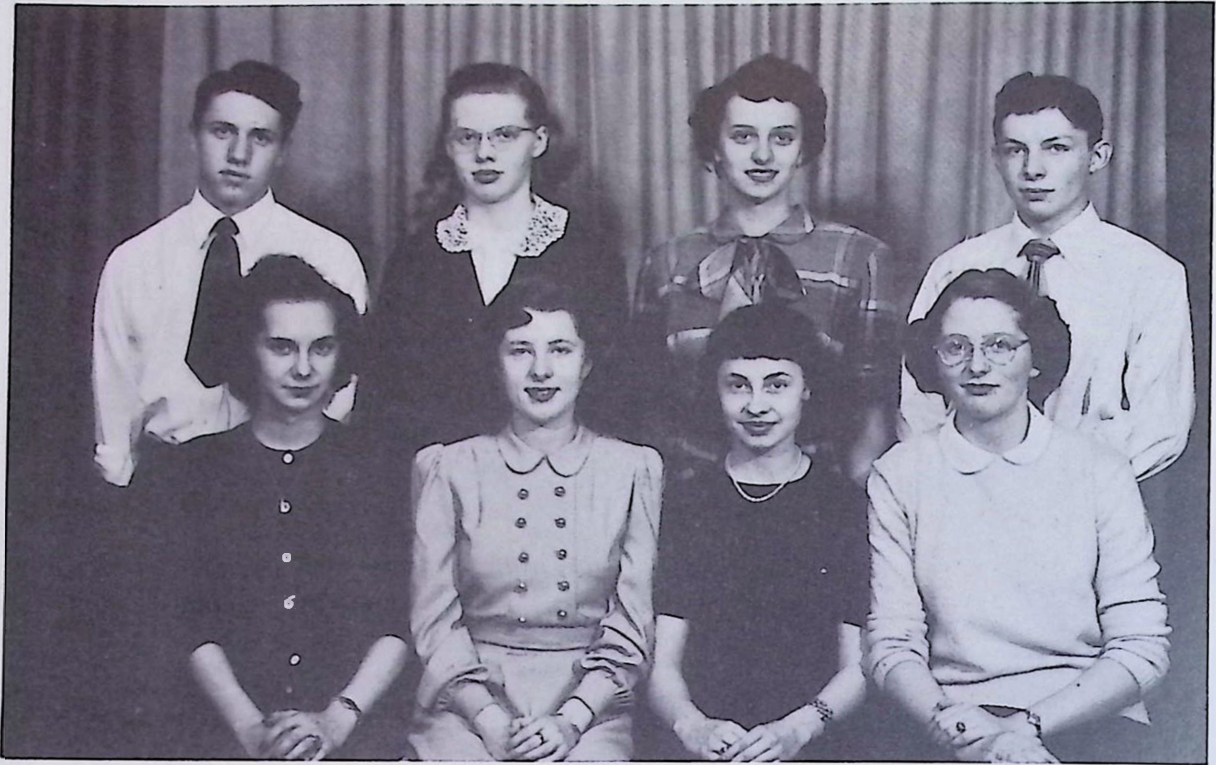

Scottsdale is one of the few schools fortunate enough to have a high school orchestra. Steady progress has been made under the direction of Mr. Hazen, our band director. Stringed instruments are still needed, but the brass and wood-wind sections are complete. Because of the constant change of orchestra members, no school orchestra can acquire the polish and perfection of a permanent musical organization. Scottsdale has been fortunate, however, in having an orchestra for many years, the first one in 1926 having been conducted by Mr. Joseph Gambels.

Because the High School has no auditorium, public appearances of the orchestra are made only at class plays. High school orchestra members are fortunate to have the experience of playing under the able direction of Mr. Hazen.

THE SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Combine fourteen talented seniors and one excellent director with one entertaining play; mix with a strong affinity for trouble; add a terrific amount of humor; garnish with a little romance; and you have "Here We Go Again," the senior class play.

Betty Parker nicknamed "Pigeon" is the main character. Sixteen, cute, wide-eyed and gullible, she can't bear to see people hurt, and since the truth quite often does, Pigeon is apt to avoid it. It isn't that she lies; she just "makes up" things. Those who suffer most by her antics are: Wilbur, her boy friend; Lois the sophisticated sister; Biff, engaged to another; Lee, the local hero; Lottie, Dad's best customer; and most of all, her hard-working father. Midge, Pigeon's pal, aids and abets her in all her plotting. Janie, the smallest Parker, has nothing but contempt for the older generation—from sixteen up.

A feed and grain business that threatens to go bankrupt, a tea shoppe that never materializes, a Popular Mechanics' designed windmill contraption, surprise fiancées, barbecues, bandannas, and black eyes all play their part in the fast-moving side-splitting comedy. Complications are finally untangled, and the play closes with the promise of everyone living happily ever after.

E. Shelkey, D. Echard, D. Akers, B. Hull, C. Weaver, L. Gismondi, D. Kiem, R. Harden, P. Murphy, S. Morris, Miss Stoner, J. Schrecengost, J. Fleming, D. Jarko, C. Hudson, M. Myal.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

Under the direction of Miss Stoner, the junior play cast gave an exciting presentation of a humorous comedy entitled "Peck's Bad Boy."

Henry, a mischievous willful boy, never believes in being good. Mr. Peck, Henry's easy-going father, is henpecked by his second wife, Hannah, a domineering sharp-tongued woman. Jimmy is Henry's conspirator in trouble-making. Minnie, Henry's pretty girl friend, worships him. Luella, Mrs. Peck's charming daughter, wins the right to marry Cliff, young and handsome, instead of her mother's choice, Melville, middle-aged and rich. Henry, Jr. makes life miserable for Lizzie and Dahlia, the Pecks' maid and cook, and Schultz, the irritable German grocer. Dora, Flora, and Lora, beautiful radio singers add to the complications in this hilarious comedy.

Trouble and confusion finally end surprisingly well. But, of course, Henry will always be "Peck's Bad Boy."

The Alpha year opened in September with President Ruth March, calling the meeting to order.

First on the list of activities was initiation of seventeen new members. The formal initiation was held jointly with Beta.

Skating parties, raffles, and Friday night dances kept the treasury well-filled.

At the close of the gridiron season a very successful football banquet was held with Mr. Copley as our guest speaker. February featured the Sweetheart Ball, a gala affair.

The senior party at which officers and senior members were presented with Alpha pins climaxed the year. The following girls were honor guests: Jane Ulickney, Eileen Szczygiel, Mary Ellen Ryan, Leona Valentovich, Betty Eberhart, Joann Reagan, Dorothy Nicklow, Barbara Remaley, Stella Helkowsky, Jane Ulery, Mary Ann Clark, Alice Jordan, Dorothy Snyder, Marjorie Thomas, Ruth March, Mary Jayne Uber, Jane Konzal, Alice Hafer, Grace Quinn.

The officers for the year were: president, Ruth March; vice president, Janet McFadden; secretary, Marjorie Ruffcorn; treasurer, Mary Ellen Ryan. Mrs. Alfred Fisher, Mrs. J. C. George, Mrs. Searles, and Miss Laughrey were our sponsors.

Dove, J. Schrecengost, P. Felgar, T. Valentovich, M. Conley, B. Phillips.

The buzzing of Beta Tri-Hi-Y members hushed as President Minnie Hunter rapped the gavel and announced, "Meeting will now come to order."

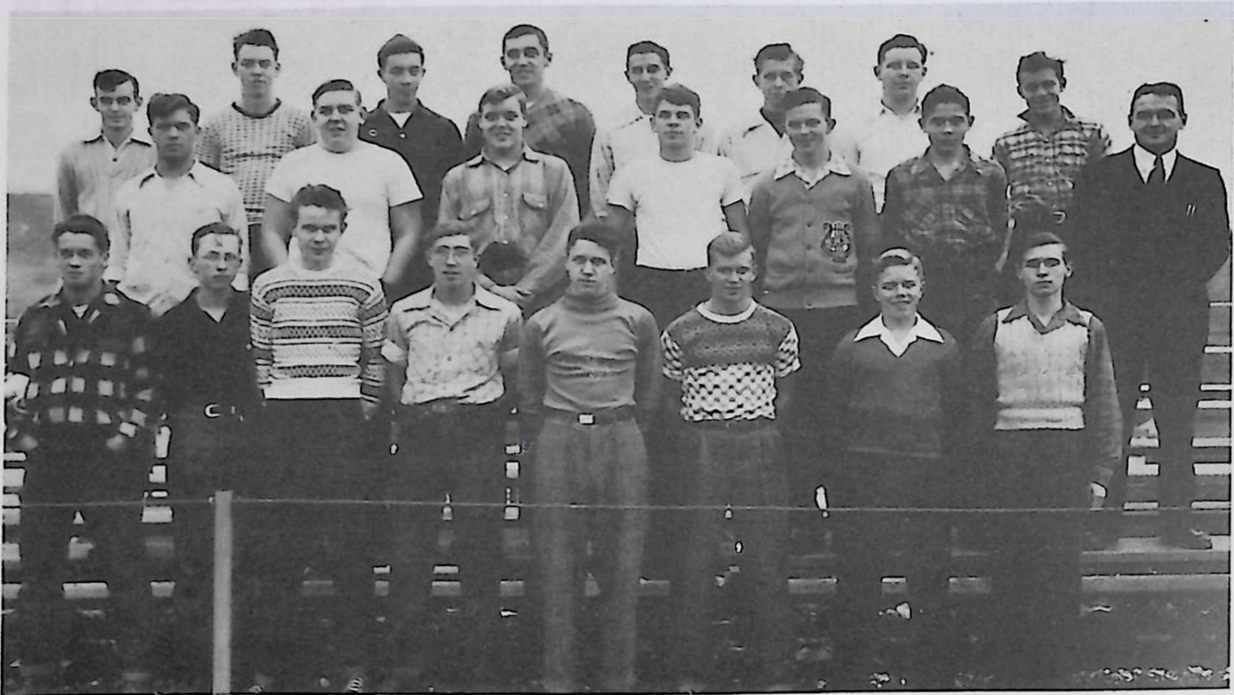

Beta went all-out for new members bringing twenty-three into the fold. Remember those moans and wails of new members during initiation? Following the formal candle-light initiation, a party made up for all the torture endured.

The Thanksgiving formal held at the Country Club was the social highlight of the year.

Dances, skating parties, the basketball banquet, a mother-daughter tea, and other informal get-togethers made a busy but enjoyable club calendar.

A farewell dinner for the seniors climaxed an action-packed year. Honor guests on this occasion were: June Christner, Margaret Cowan, Doris Curry, Dorcas Dove, Betty Forejt, Phyllis Glaser, Jane Hernley, Minnie Hunter, Barbara Koval, Mary Musgrove, Josephine Rizza, and Agnes Vinzani.

Officers for the year were: Minnie Hunter, president; Margaret Cowan and Mary Musgrove, vice-presidents; Phyllis Glaser, secretary; Josephine Rizza, treasurer. Mrs. Maloy, Mrs. Brooks, and Mrs. Shaw were club sponsors.

Row 1: R. Hollenbaugh, P. Hurst, J. Gaut, E. Yoder, M. Cummings, R. Craig, R. Keim, P. Weaver. Row 2: A. Babura, R. Echard, D. King, G. Beck, K. Hyatt, J. Harris, Sponsor, Mr. Boyer. Row 3: C. Emmer, D. Maloy, R. Rollinson, J. Holland, W. Jefferys, G. McFadden, J. Gower, N. Morgan.

THE HI-Y

Those repercussions heard throughout Scottsdale were not caused by a bomb. Just the regular meeting of the gang.

It was the Hi-Y Club and no other that sponsored the annual Sadie Hawkins dance. All the Dogpatch folks were present. The latest fashions in male attire were modeled by the boys at the Joe College dance.

New members were received into the club in October. In place of the informal initiation, the boys were assigned to clean-up detail at all of our dances.

The leaders of this active organization were: Arnold Babura, president; Ronald Hollenbaugh, vice-president; Malcolm Cummings, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Boyer and Mr. Morgan were club sponsors.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

*"It's Thursday eve and 4:00," did you say?
Yes, all the girls are at G. A. A.
They laughed, they played, they lost, they won,
No matter which, 'twas all such fun."*

Once more G. A. A. launched a very successful season.

After getting the molasses out of their hair which those terrible upperclassmen put there, each girl was ready to begin in basketball tournaments. The fighting spirit was there when the Super-Seven downed the Ever-Sweets, Scottie Dodgers, and Smokeys. Each captain hustled around inviting players to enter her team in the Invitation Tournament. Everyone worked for a class team, and the major goal was the G. A. A. team.

Interest was high in bowling, and competition was keen for the highest averages. Girls worked in the pool each meeting and had a rugged time controlling those flutter boards. The table tennis paddles and balls were busy also.

The girls who rated highest as athletes were selected to represent our school at play-days at California State Teachers' College and Donora High.

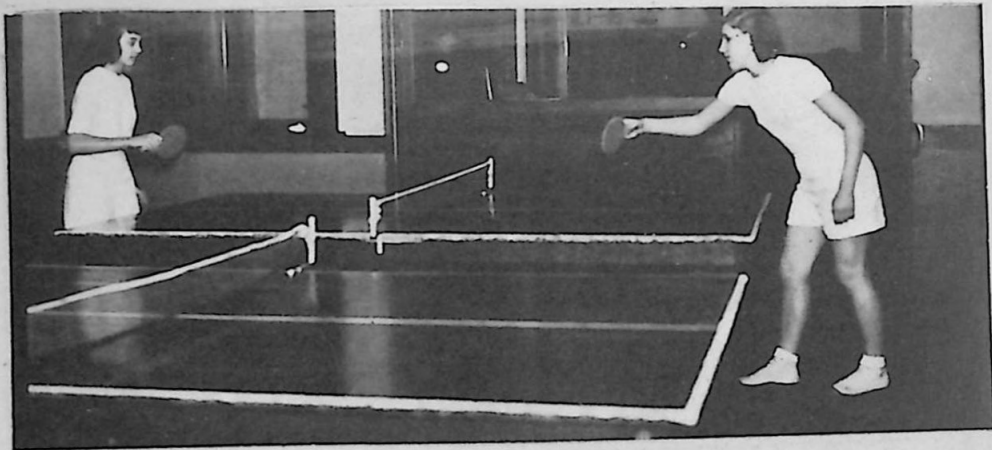

The members worked hard as a group to earn their memberships so they could continue to use the Y. Selling Scottie emblems, raffling a turkey, selling candy at basketball games, and sponsoring school dances created a busy season and paid the Y dues.

The season closed with the annual banquet at which each girl who had earned 350 points was presented with the coveted G. A. A. fleet-foot emblem.

Officers of the year were: president, Anna Mae Zerilla; vice-president, Minnie Mae Hunter; secretary, Pat Byers; treasurer, Sarah Enberg. The faculty sponsor was Mrs. Barnes.

GRIDIRON QUEEN

The annual coronation of the Gridiron Queen, sponsored by the Scottie Revue, was held September 30, at the Scottsdale-West Newton football game. The lovely queen, Ruth March, who was elected by the students because of her school spirit and outstanding school loyalty, wore a white evening dress and the traditional blue and white satin robe and carried a beautiful arm bouquet of blue and white chrysanthemums. Her four attendants, Mary Jayne Uber, Jane Ulery, Barbara Remaley, and Jane Ulickney wore gowns of pink and blue. Little Carol Heise, the mascot of the Scottie Band, served as crownbearer.

The queen was escorted to the dais in the middle of the field by co-captains, Babura and Nawrocki. Babura placed the Gridiron Crown upon her head with the words, "I crown thee Queen of the Gridiron."

After the coronation she was escorted to her throne placed near the bleachers where she and her attendants witnessed the Scottie varsity inflict a humiliating defeat on the West Newton Hornets.

After the game the Coronation Ball was held over which Her Royal Highness, Gridiron Queen Ruth reigned supreme and upheld the proud tradition of the coronation event in the annals of S. H. S.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1949, in ninety-five distinct parts, being about to pass out of this sphere of education, in full possession of crammed mind, well-trained memory, and almost superhuman understanding, do make and publish this, our last will and testament, hereby making void all former wills or promises by us at any time heretofore made, or mayhap, carelessly spoken, one to the other, as the thoughtless wish of an idle moment. Therefore, we do solemnly bequeath:

Article I.

To Mr. Byers the overwhelming task, the almost impossible undertaking of conducting the Scottsdale High School without that most illustrious and renowned group known otherwise as the Class of 1949.

Article II.

To the juniors our absentee slips and overdue excuses.

Article III.

To all sophomores, Ralph Ghrist's book of 1000 jokes.

Article IV.

To the freshmen our dignified ways.

Article V.

To certain individuals we wish to specify certain bequests from members of the Class of '49. We hereby bequeath:

Homer's muscles to Jenny Wardinga.

Maureen Hughes' talent to Tony Spinella.

Wimpy's sex appeal to all junior boys.

Maizie's eyes to Johanna Popochock.

Dick Cossel's "Toni" to John Holland.

Jane Ulery's coiffure to Margaret Earnesty.

Walt Jefferys' lethargy to Red Dog Maloy.

Mary Ellen Ryan's habit of sliding down bannisters to Blimpy Ruffcorn.

Kid Bickley's key to Richard's Door to Art Scales.

Stella Helkowsky's shorthand recitations to Connie Fretts.

Barbara Koval's basketball skill to Nancy McNally.

Mr. Stimmel's shorthand class to all underclass stenographers. (Especially the corner section.)

Marie Konitsney's shyness to Pat Murtha.

Margy Thomas' vivacity to Flo Rolko.

Dick Garrity's hooky record to Pat Byers.

Putt Stamm's jalopy to the graveyard.

Hereby declaring this to be our last will and testament we appoint Mr. Sechrist to be the executor. In witness thereof we have hereunto subscribed our name and affixed our seals, the last day of school, June 3, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Forty-Nine.

LEFTOVERS, APOLOGIES AND GRIPES

Leftovers—

Our headaches.

Our revolutionizing sessions to be put into effect by the class of '50.

Our debt to Mrs. Maloy for our "bars on the bill."

Those bumpy mattresses from sleeping on our major problems.

Our desperate and futile hunt for originality.

Apologies

To Chet for all the trouble we caused him.

To Miss Loucks and Mr. Seese for our constant disagreements.

To Bill Steele for making him work overtime on the printing.

To the teachers who were very patient and understanding.

To Mr. Byers and study hall teachers who never grew tired of our unceasing demand of "We need a permit."

Gripes—

The organizations who couldn't find time to get organized.

The students who wouldn't co-operate while pictures were being taken.

The teachers who were camera shy.

All the overtime work for which we did not get time and a half.

Annually yours,

THE STAFF

MR. HOUGH

Students of Scottdale High School were deeply shocked at the sudden death of Mr. Hough, November 5, 1948. Ill health had forced him to give up his work as maintenance man in the high school just four days before his death.

Before his assignment to the high school six years ago, he had served at Pittsburgh Street Building in the same capacity. He was a friend of the students, holding the bell for the latecomers, teasing the detention hall victims, and joking with them on all occasions. An industrious and capable worker, Mr. Hough kept our high school comfortable and in good repair.

He will be missed by both the students and faculty.

To the Patrons of The Scottie

The members of the Scottie Staff wish to thank the many patrons in Scottdale and neighboring communities whose generous contributions have aided in making this volume of the Scottie a financial success.

WHO ARE YOUR FRIENDS?

Young folks do not always remember that they are often judged by the company they keep. The world looks upon the friends we associate with, and registers us accordingly. It is therefore important for us to choose proper friends and to be cautious about losing them by serious engagement.

This friendly thought was taken from John Wanamaker's writings and we sincerely hope it will guide you into many worthwhile friendships through life.
